

Competition Rewards

Along with the host of prizes provided through the outstanding support of our valued sponsors, the Marsh Rural Ambassador Awards provide young Queensland men and women with an avenue to pursue their passion for the show movement.

The Rural Ambassador Awards are an excellent opportunity for young Queenslanders to represent their town and region. With public speaking and official duties being a significant part of the judging and following representative duties, competitors can also use this competition as a personal development opportunity.

Rural Ambassador Awards

Queensland Ag Shows

Rural Ambassador

The aim of the "MARSH Rural Ambassador Awards" is to highlight the importance of young people in rural and regional Queensland, in particular those associated with the Agricultural Show movement. The award identifies those people actively involved in their local Show, who have a sound knowledge of current rural issues affecting their local areas, Queensland and Australia and have a strong affiliation with agriculture. The award seeks young people who symbolise the rural spirit - people with vitality who are forward thinking and with a passion for the land and agricultural shows.

Entry Requirements

Conditions of entry apply for the Marsh Rural Ambassador Awards. The competition is run on four levels, The local Show winner progresses to a Sub Chamber final where the winner competes in the State Final held during the Royal Queensland Show (EKKA). The winner of the State Final then competes at the National Final held at a State Royal Show. This competition has expanded to international status with New Zealand joining in 2008. Full entry requirements and guidelines can be found on the Queensland Ag Shows website at:
